

Spring GREETING

April 2022

2021 IRA Deadline Approaches
Tax Day is just around the corner, but there's still time to open or make a contribution to your Individual Retirement Account for the 2021 tax year. You have until April 15, 2022 to contribute up to $6,000 or $7,000 if you are age 50 or older, in a Traditional IRA and it may be tax-deductible. (The deduction may be limited if you or your spouse is covered by a retirement plan at work and your income exceeds certain levels.) You must start taking distributions by April 1 following the year in which you turn age 72 and by December 31 of later years. Contributions to a Roth IRA are not deductible, but any interest you earn isn't taxed and qualified distributions are tax-free. The amount you can contribute is affected by your modified adjusted gross income and filing status. You're not required to take any distributions. See your tax advisor for details, then contact the credit union to ask about your IRA savings options.

Reminder: Your Free Credit Report Awaits

It's never been a more important time to check your credit report. During the pandemic, fraud has run rampant, and reviewing your credit report is a weapon you can use to guard against identity theft and the fraudulent use of your personal information. The three nationwide credit reporting companies, Experian, Equifax, and Transunion, have set up a central website, a toll-free number, and a mailing address through which you can order your free annual reports. To review your report immediately go to annualcreditreport.com. You can also call 1-877-322-8228 or fill out and mail the request form available on the Federal Trade Commission's Website, ftc.gov. Phone orders take up to 15 days, and mail orders 15 days from the time they are received. You can order all three agency reports at once, but to keep your finger on the pulse of your information, consider spacing out your requests over a year. For example, order Experian now, Equifax in summer and Transunion in late fall. For more details, visit ftc.gov and follow the link to "Get Your Free Credit Report."
